DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-15, 43, 45, and 48-49, drawn to microbial organisms that are capable of fermenting malic acid to lactic acid and wherein said microbial organism, when placed in a medium containing a predetermined amount of citric acid is only capable of degrading at the most 80% of said citric acid, and wherein the microbial organism has at least one of the following characteristics, when said microbial organism in a frozen or freeze dried state is added directly into a fermented fruit juice: i) a survival rate which is at least 1% after two days at 23 degrees C in a fermented sterile fruit juice with a pH of less than 4 and comprising at least 12 vol % ethanol, ii) a survival rate which is at least 70% after two days at 17 degrees C in a fermented sterile fruit juice with a pH of less than 4 comprising at least 13.9 vol % ethanol.

Group II, claim(s) 16, 18-20, 22-26, 29, 31-32, 34-35, 37-38, and 40-42, drawn to methods of degrading malic acid over citric acid and of inducing malolactic fermentation during wine production.

Group III, claim(s) 50-52, 55, and 58-59, drawn to methods of producing a microbial organism comprising subjecting organisms to mutagenesis and selecting appropriate mutated organisms.

Group IV, claim(s) 63-66, 68-76, 79-82, 84-88, and 90-93, drawn to an activation solution.

Group V, claim(s) 94-95 and 98-100, drawn to methods of inducing fermentation with an activation solution.

The inventions listed as Groups I-V do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons.

The technical feature linking Groups I-V appears to be a microbial organism capable of fermenting at least one fermentable compound.

Art Unit: 1645

However, Viljakainen et al. (Eur. Food Res. Technol., 211:438-442, 2000, IDS filed 8/28/2006) discloses multiple species of bacteria that are capable of malolactic fermentation.

Therefore, the technical feature linking the inventions of Groups I-V does not constitute a special technical feature as defined by PCT Rule 13.2, as it does not define a contribution over the art.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained.

Art Unit: 1645

Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Brian J. Gangle whose telephone number is (571)272-1181. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 7-3:30.
